

Mr. A. V. Ramana Rao (1981-82)

- A massive program of continuing education and management development has been launched and an annual calendar has been published;
- A professional brief on "Guidelines to Cost Audit" was brought out;
- In the place of Cost Accounting Record Rules for individual industries, the Institute compiled and recommended to the Government Rules for group of industries-engineering industries to start with ;
- Decentralization of the postal coaching and registration of students was introduced in all the Regional Centres;
- Examination procedures were computerized so as to handle the growing number of examinees and statistical needs.
- On 20th April 1982 Council had approved at its meeting the scheme of training for students.